INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

NOTICE:

Your complaint is subject to dismissal unless it conforms to these instructions and this form.

1. To start an action you must file an original and one copy of your complaint with the court. You should keep a copy of the complaint for your own records.
2. Your complaint must be legibly handwritten, in ink, or typewritten. You, the plaintiff, must sign and declare under penalty of perjury that the facts are correct. If you need additional space, DO NOT USE THE REVERSE SIDE OR BACK SIDE OF ANY PAGE. ATTACH AN ADDITIONAL BLANK PAGE AND WRITE ON IT.
3. You must file a separate complaint for each claim you have unless the various claims are all related to the same incident or issue or are all against the same defendant, Rule 18, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Make a short and plain statement of your claim, Rule 8, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
4. When these forms are completed, mail the original and one copy to the clerk of the United States district court for the appropriate district of Texas in the division where one or more named defendants are located, or where the incident giving rise to your claim for relief occurred. If you are confined in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Correctional Institutions Division (TDCJ-CID), the list labeled as "VENUE LIST" is posted in your unit law library. It is a list of the Texas prison units indicating the appropriate district court, the division and an address list of the divisional clerks.

FILING FEE AND IN FORMA PAUPERIS (IFP)

1. In order for your complaint to be filed, it must be accompanied by the statutory filing fee of $350.00 plus an administrative fee of $52.00 for a total fee of $402.00.
2. If you do not have the necessary funds to pay the fee in full at this time, you may request permission to proceed in forma pauperis. In this event you must complete the application to proceed in forma pauperis, setting forth information to establish your inability to prepay the fees and costs or give security therefor. You must also include a current six-month history of your inmate trust account. If you are an inmate in TDCJ-CID, you can acquire the application to proceed in forma pauperis and the certificate of inmate trust account, also known as in forma pauperis data sheet, from the law library at your prison unit.
3. The Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (PLRA) provides "... if a prisoner brings a civil action or files an appeal in forma pauperis, the prisoner shall be required to pay the full amount of a filing fee." See 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Thus, the court is required to assess and, when funds exist, collect, the entire filing fee or an initial partial filing fee and monthly installments until the entire amount of the filing fee has been paid by the prisoner. If you submit the application to proceed in forma pauperis, the court will apply 28 U.S.C. § 1915 and, if appropriate, assess and collect the entire filing fee or an initial partial filing fee, then monthly installments from your inmate trust account, until the entire $350.00 statutory filing fee has been paid. (The $52.00 administrative fee does not apply to cases proceeding in forma pauperis.)
4. If you intend to seek in forma pauperis status, do not send your complaint without an application to proceed in forma pauperis and the certificate of inmate trust account. Complete all essential paperwork before submitting it to the court.

It is your responsibility to inform the court of any change of address and its effective date. Such notice should be marked "NOTICE TO THE COURT OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS" and shall not include any motion for any other relief. Failure to file a NOTICE TO THE COURT OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS may result in the dismissal of your complaint pursuant to Rule 41(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

Instructions to a Prisoner Pro Se Plaintiff

Your suit _____ was filed on _____ and has been assigned case number _____.

These instructions do not include everything you need to know to pursue your case, but following them may help you avoid common mistakes that can result in delay or other consequences—including dismissal of your case.

1. Filing Procedures - The Local Civil Rules include the following requirements:
 - You must submit a judge's copy (a paper copy) of any document you file. If you want a file-stamped copy returned to you, submit the original, the judge's copy, and an extra copy to be returned to you, and provide a self-addressed, postage-paid envelope. The clerk cannot make an extra copy for you unless you first pay a fee of 50 cents per page.
 - You must type or legibly handwrite your documents on one side of numbered pages. Any exhibit or discovery material attached to the filing must be referred to in the filing. Any exhibit or discovery material not referred to in your filing or not attached to your filing may be returned to you.
2. Address Change - You must notify the Court if your address changes, or your case may be dismissed. Promptly file a written change of address notice in your case.
3. Rules to Follow - You must read and follow the Court's Local Civil Rules and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Because the presiding judge is authorized to change how certain rules apply, you must read and follow the judge's orders in your case.
4. Request for Attorney - In a civil case, you generally are not entitled to a court-appointed attorney to represent you without cost to you. If you request a court-appointed attorney, a judge will decide whether to appoint an attorney depending on the circumstances of the case. Even if the court decides to appoint an attorney, the attorney cannot be forced to accept the appointment. You may call the Lawyer Referral Service of the State Bar of Texas at (800) 252-9690 for assistance in securing the services of a private attorney to represent you for a fee.
5. Initial Case Review - If the Court grants leave to proceed in forma pauperis, service of process will be withheld pending review of your complaint, and your complaint may be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2).
6. Copies to Defendant - After a defendant has been served your complaint, you must serve a copy of any other document you file upon the defendant's attorney (or upon the defendant, if the defendant is pro se). You must serve the opposing side by mail or another manner authorized by FED. R. CIV. P. 5 (b)(2). All documents must contain a Certificate of Service reflecting that you served the opposing side. This is an example of language you may use:
 - I hereby certify that on Sept 14, 2022 (Date), I forwarded a copy of the foregoing document to Christopher F. Narvaez, the attorney for (Defendant) at the address of John N. Lamar.

X /Signature/ C. Narvaez
7. Discovery Materials - Do not file discovery materials with the clerk. If you file a motion to compel discovery, you may attach only the portions of discovery that are relevant to your motion.
8. Questions About Your Case - Do not write letters to the judge asking questions about your case - all communication with the judge should be through filings. Do not write letters to the clerk asking for instructions on how to handle your case, since the clerk is prohibited from giving legal advice.
